

Please, do not weaken Indiana telephone privacy laws. I should have the right to say who can call me, and not be harrassed by caller even of company's that I have done business with. Please drop this.